

Referral Program

Earn Rewards for Your Introductions

Overview

Introducing our exciting Referral Program! If you refer a school or department that becomes a customer, you stand to earn significant rewards.

How it Works

- For each successful introduction that leads to a completed demo, you receive a $20 Uber Eats gift card just for making the introduction.
- If that introduction results in a purchase of:
 - YieldRaiser: within one year, you earn $1,000.
 - RaftrCampus: within one year, you earn $2,000.
- These funds can go directly to you or your department.

Program Rules

✓ Eligibility

- Any individual or institution can participate in the referral program.
- The referred contact must not work for an institution that is a current Raftr partner.

✓ Referral Submission

- Submit referrals through our designated referral form available on our website.
- Ensure contact information for the referred prospect is accurate and complete.

✓ Rewards

- A $20 Uber Eats gift card is awarded after the referred prospect completes a product demo.
- A cash reward goes to the individual or department if the referred customer purchases either YieldRaiser or RaftrCampus within one year of the referral, and will be paid out upon receipt of referred customer's year 1 payment.

✓ Conditions

- To qualify for the Uber Eats gift card, the referred customer must successfully complete a demo.
- The referred customer must purchase either YieldRaiser or RaftrCampus within one year, for the referrer to earn the cash reward.
- Cash rewards will be paid out within 30 days following the receipt of the year 1 payment from the referred customer of their purchase of YieldRaiser or RaftrCampus.
- Rewards are subject to applicable taxes and reporting requirements.

✓ General Terms

- The program is subject to change or end at any time at the discretion of the company.
- Participants agree to the program rules and conditions by submitting a referral.
- Fraudulent or dishonest behavior will result in disqualification from the program.

Thank you for participating in our Referral Program!
Your introductions help us grow and succeed.
